		a.	The infiltration process described in paragraph 3 will be greatly intensified.
		b.	In certain cases the CCF will go directly to non-Communist individuals holding government posts and say, "You must do exactly as we say from now on, or you may retire." The non-Communist individuals as practical Chinese will realize that the coalition game is played out and will alrost without exception keep their jobs and obey. They will feel that a man rust eat and that a man likes to wield some power - even if he must sadag it in a dictated direction. A very few may choose to retire.
25X1		c.	Finally the CCP will dissolve the non-Communist parties, inviting them to come into the CCP en bloc and stating simply that with the socialist state in the offing there is no longer any need for other parties.
	6.	Thi the	s general explanation of a non-violent purge would not necessarily be pattern of a purge of the CCP itself.
